PLEASE READ

1. Animals that behave in an uncontrollable or hazardous manner in the opinion of a Judge or Association Official will be required to leave the Showground.

2. No person other than the Ring Stewards, any other Official, or Competitors shall be in the rings. Competitors shall not have communication with the judges whilst in the ring, unless approached by the above Officials.

3. The use of sawdust above the knee; the use of resin, soap or other substance in any form or way designed to give an artificial appearance shall disqualify such animals.

4. In the event of the infringement of the above rules, the Stewards have the authority to order the offender to leave the ring. This may result in the forfeiting of any monies.

5. It is requested that all handlers and grooms be properly dressed when in the ring i.e. hat, jacket, tie, etc.
6. Turnout classes are to be judged 50% horse/s and 50% vehicle and harness
6. In the Agricultural Wagon Turnout Class, there should be no springs or seats allowed, unless original to the wagon. Horses should not be trotted. No patent leather is allowed.
7. In the Implement Class no patent leather is allowed, working harness to be worn, horses must walk. Working chains allowed. Horses can be left un-plaited if a competitor so desires.
8. No person under the age of sixteen will be allowed to handle or ride a horse without a competent adult in attendance to deal with any unforeseen circumstances.
9. The long-rein classes will be an individual obstacle course, rein-back and halt with slack rein. (Handler to take a pace forward to slacken rein, horse not to move off) followed by a general go-round. Please if you are able, help with the set-up of the skills courses or obstacle manning. You will find a slightly hassled secretary most grateful for any assistance.
10. Breast harness is acceptable in all harness and turnout classes.
11. The Heavy Horse Section of the Chertsey Agricultural Show is intended to be a mix of 'serious' and 'fun' showing. Please respect this ethos and treat all competitors and officials with good grace and politeness, even if you disagree with a decision.
